

Tonight There's Only You

Verse 1

The sky is filled with a thousand stars but to me they're out of view
I can't see them tonight there's only you.

Verse 2

We gaze at each other and drift away into our private rendezvous
Nothing else matters tonight there's only you.

Alternate Verse

*Should we even be together, some would say it is taboo.
I can't hear them, tonight there's only you.*

People say live for today; don't let a moment slip away
Cause you never know, love might grow, and change all our tomorrows.

Music

Middle 2

People say live for today and we were made for this moment now
And if by chance our love grows, it will change all our tomorrows.

Verse 3

There's no other place I'd rather be than alone here just us two,
For you're a real life angel, I'm in heaven and tonight there's only you

Last line

Yes you're a real life angel, I'm in heaven and
Tonight there's only you.
